

Presents A Training for Tribal Communities:

Understanding the New Mexico
Air Quality Permitting Process

Thursday, January 28, 2010
AMERIND Risk Management Corp., Santa Ana Pueblo

AGENDA

- 8:30 a.m. Welcome & Introductions
Helen B. Padilla, Director, American Indian Law Center
- 8:45 a.m. Environmental Justice in New Mexico and Tribal Communities
Milton Bluehouse, Jr., Tribal Liaison, NM Environment Department
Dr. Lloyd Lee, Asst. Professor of Native American Studies, UNM
- 9:30 a.m. Tribal Air Program Presentation: Navajo Nation
Charlene Nelson, Program Supervisor, Air Quality Control Program/Operating Permit Program
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. NM Environment Department Air Quality Permitting Procedures
Richard Goodyear, NMED Permitting Manager
- 11:45 a.m. Questions and Answers
- 12:30 p.m. Conclusion

This training is made possible by a grant from the U.S. EPA Environmental Justice Small Grants Program.